HELLO AGAIN FROM CAMP 9!!

Rounding the corner at full speed ahead, we are heading into week 5 at camp and loving every minute of it. After a few scattered showers to help keep the dust down, camp is humming right along. This week will see Honors canoe, kayak, and mountain trips departing our Moose Pond shores to enjoy some of the most spectacular trips of the summer.

On Tuesday, the mountain trip brigade approached the western flanks of Kearsarge North Mt. and decided to summit the mountain regardless of the low clouds obscuring the skies. Uncles Bruce Allsopp and Jack Elzinga guided Josh Moran, Decker Wentz, Jack Murphy, Garrett Kearns, and David Mester up the three mile long trail to the fire tower at the top. Fortunately, the fog cleared while they were at the top, and they enjoyed a 360° view overlooking North Conway, NH and were just able to view Moose Pond through the haze.

On Monday, Aunt Alicia Allsopp and Uncle Jack Elzinga led Kyle Gike, Peter Shannon, Eric Rawn, Jack Murphy, Josh Moran, and Jake Boyd up the gentle slopes of Mt. Avalon. Good views of Crawford Notch were had by the group which only whet their appetites for bigger and longer trips scheduled in the second half of camp.

Friday saw sailors Drew Allsopp and Will Duffy tack their way to a third place finish at Camp Agawam's regatta. Uncle Bubba Dropkin and two other Senior campers attended the event as well. All returned to camp beaming with pride knowing that they were mere inches from first place glory.

The resurgence of wiffleball as a sport is spreading like wildfire. Wiffle balls, with the right technique, can be pitched with crazy curves and accuracy. Trying their hand at it in a match versus Camp Micah were campers Julian Orillac, Walter Hubsch, Jake Boyd, Oliver Rodgers, Luis Uzcategui van Grieken, and Topher Perkins. Uncle Sam Bernstein and Aunt Jesse Littlefield provided some great coaching, but the dipping, diving, curving wiffle ball proved too much for them. Winona won their first game by the score of 26-16 but dropped the second contest 17-7 to earn a second place finish.

Just before Mid-Season, John Cagganello, Jean Devillard, Jose Martinez, and Mitch Lehman, accompanied Uncle Sebastian Arteaga to 302 Gallery for the annual campers' exhibit. This was the first time Winona participated. Two pieces were sent from Inty: one was a drawing of a dragon by Nicolas Garnica that got third place in the Drawing category, and the other was last summer's unit project of the Wiggy that got first place in the Painting category. Congratulations to all of the campers who participated in the unit project last summer and to Nicolas Garnica.

Sam Fulweiler, Walter Hubsch, Luke Stockmayer, Pieter Stockmayer, James Marsh, Tommy Litle, Oliver Rodgers, Evan Merkel, Chris Aitken, Luis Ojea Guzman, Luis Uzcategui van Grieken, Oliver Vasconcelles, and Jake Boyd visited arch-rival O-AT-KA on Wednesday for a soccer match. Though they played very well in the first half and held a 2-1 goal advantage, coaches Doc Potter and Banak Thiwat were unable to thwart their opponent's resurgence during the second half. The end result was a 3-2 loss which was hard to accept given they outplayed their opponents for most of the game.

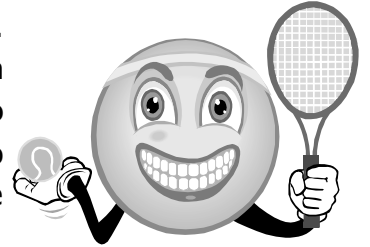

(Over for more news!!)

Uncles Colby Johnson, Ayden Strachan, and another counselor took a lacrosse team to Camp Cedar on Friday. Sam Rollenhagen, David Mester, Kyle Gike, Liam Cornec, Oliver Vasconcelles, Sam Fulweiler, Nick Belliveau, Jack Godfrey, Tommy Litle, Henry Spearman, John Decker, Chris Aitken, and three other Junior campers rounded out the 13 and under team. In the tournament, they defeated Camp Wildwood (7-2) and Camp Cedar (3-2) but were finally defeated by Camp Takajo (8-5). All in all, they returned happy and proud of their second place finish.

On Sunday the tennis team travelled to O-AT-KA for a match on the hard courts. Uncles Dan Wesson and Sebastian Arteaga brought Owen Bass, Sebastian Guzman, Rafael Saavedra, Alvaro Pascual Brier, Luis Guzman, and Ricardo Rivera to this competition. Unfortunately, they lost 4-1 in games and returned to camp plotting how they would improve their backstrokes in order to make a more formidable opponent next time.

Lake Mooselookmeguntic was the sole destination for Inty campers this week. Uncle Jack Bement paddled from one end of the pond to the other with two different groups of campers and counselors. On part A of the trip were Uncles John Lucas and Charlie Morgan along with campers Ghael Fobes, Devan Lockwood, Liam Cahill, Nate Todd, Milo Kremer, Townsend Miller, Nick Belliveau, John Cagganello, and Sam Rollenhagen. Arriving with a healthy resupply of food and campers for the paddle back up the lake were Uncles Pete Hurd, Chad Skinner, and CIT Ben Clapp along with Austin Hanley, Henry Walker, Sam Skinner, Renzhong Huang, Evan

Merkel, James Marsh, Sebastian Guzman Cover, and Peter Kearney. The first part of the trip had lots of rain and wood chopping. The second part of the trip had much better weather, but that's life in the outdoors.

Wednesday had the mountain trippers leaving for a three day trip into New Hampshire's Pemigewasset Wilderness. Aunt Alicia Allsopp, Uncle Bruce Allsopp and Jack Elzinga deftly guided Josh Moran, Jack Murphy, Walker Battey, Decker Wentz, Scott Tom, Ricardo Rivera, Eric Rawn, and Owen Bass up the trail past some beautiful falls to Nancy Pond for the first night. Great views of the valley were followed up by a very steep hike up Mt. Carrigain. The reward, however, was worth the effort as the group again enjoyed the 360° views from a fire tower on the summit. Because there was a spring and a campsite at the summit, they were able to spend the night there and enjoy the incredible views in the morning. Some very happy campers returned from that trip.

Chris Aitken, William Duffy, John Decker, and Topher Perkins joined six Senior campers along with Uncles Drew Nicol and Jeff Lamson on a kayaking trip to Errol Rapids on the Androscoggin River. After some fabulous waves and stunning whitewater, the group headed to Frenchman's Hole for a refreshing dip in the water before returning to camp.

Men of Distinction – This section is reserved for campers who demonstrate Winona staunch and true traits in areas of camp that often go unnoticed but are truly appreciated by their Inty counselors. This list is shared at campfire on Saturday nights to positively their efforts and great attitudes.

Sam Rollenhagen – for braving the depths underneath the Inty Wiggy to retrieve Baggo bags.

Slater Nalen – for having the best Lodge stash.

Nick Belleview – for jamming out hard.

Julian Orillac – for falling out of a tent and taking it like a champ.

Quavontaye Scott – for being a great friend

Oliver Vasconcelles – for being a brick wall at the lacrosse tournament and being a Bombardment Boss.

Walter Hubsch – for finding five baseballs and three lacrosse balls at the baseball field.

John Decker and Nick Belliveau – for overcoming their fears of kayaking and acquiring swagger.

Owen Bass (1), Milo Kremer (2), and Rafael Saavedra (3) – for being at the top of the tennis ladder this week.

After another action packed week of trips, competitions, and Oscar showings, Inty campers and staff are gearing up for Honors' Trip week. Tales of glory will be abound next week as campers are invited on some of the longest and best trips of the summer to test their staunch and true character.

Until next week,

Stephen Cournoyer
